HAPPY EASTER!

Happy Easter! Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch—Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel’s Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus’ Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens’ Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism’s waters to our family’s Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, “Here comes everybody!” So in this Jubilee of Mercy, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom’s Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: “Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent’s beginning, and you who didn’t fast at all, rejoice! The table’s richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!” Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody!

Legion of Mary Corner

St. Leo the Great says in a beautiful way that Jesus hastened to rise as soon as possible because He was in a hurry to console His Mother and the disciples. He was in the tomb strictly as long as was necessary to comply with the three days that has been foretold. He rose on the third day, as soon as He could, just before sunrise, when everything was still dark, in advance of the dawn with His own light.

The Resurrection is the great light for the world: “I am the light,” Jesus had said; light for the world, for all ages of history, for every society, for each man.

The Resurrection of Christ is a powerful call to apostolate: to be light and to carry the light to others. To do this, we must be united to Christ. Our task as Christians is to proclaim the kingship of Christ, announcing it through what we say and do.

Our Lord wants men and women of His own in all walks of life. Some he calls away from society, asking them to give up involvement in the world, so that they remind the rest of us by their example that God exists. To others, he entrusts the priestly ministry. But he wants the vast majority to stay right where they are and spread the gospel, in all earthly occupations in which they work: the factory, the laboratory, the farm, the trades, the streets of the big cities and the trails of the mountains.
