GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the "baptism of the bells," recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There's no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

Legion of Mary Corner

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

We have the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at Good Shepherd Church every Friday, after the 7 am morning mass and ends with Benediction at around 5 pm.

Why is it important for you to visit Jesus during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament?

We visit friends, and Jesus should be our best friend and the first one in our list of friends. Jesus in the gospel talks about how much He loves each one of us.

Jesus waits patiently for our visit, hoping that we make time for him, even 10 minutes of our time each Friday. If you do visit Jesus, you won't be disappointed.

In Matthew 11:28, Jesus said: "Come to me, all you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

Why is it necessary for Catholics to visit Jesus during the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament?

The Blessed Sacrament is the real presence of Jesus on earth. He is present body, blood, soul and divinity.

We can intercede for our families, friends and the world. We are blessed by living in a country with freedom to worship. We need to thank God for our freedom and all the graces and blessings we received from Him.

We need to grow in the virtues of faith, hope and charity to become the person that Jesus wants us to be, and make a difference in the world by our actions.

When we visit Jesus, we can set an example for others to follow, like our families and friends. Actions speak louder than words.

The Legion of Mary Presidium at Good Shepherd Church meets 5:30 pm on Thursdays at St. Rita's Hall. You are welcome to attend!

CHURCH PARKING

FIRE LANES

Last week, at the 10 am mass, we had a medical emergency in the church and the firetruck could not maneuver due to cars parked in the fire lane. We ask everyone to please respect the fire lanes, especially the area in front of the church. It could mean saving someone's life.

PRAY FOR THE SICK:

Please pray for our sick and infirm, for those in the hospital or nursing homes and for those recovering at home.

*Delta Santa Teresa
Rev. Mickey McCormick
Deacon Ben Salvan
John Eaves
Madeline Sherry*

Virgin, most holy, Mother of the Word Incarnate, Treasurer of graces, and Refuge of sinners, I fly to your motherly affection with lively faith, and I beg of you the grace ever to do the will of God. Into your most holy hands I commit the keeping of my heart, asking you for health of soul and the body, in certain hope that you, my most loving Mother, will hear my prayer. Amen.

Parish Mission Statement

We are grateful disciples of Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, striving to be a faith-filled community through the prayerful celebration of the liturgy and sacraments. We welcome all embracing our diversity and seeking to grow as a loving and nurturing community serving others with our God given talents and gifts.

Prayer for a Successful Parish Renewal

God of Love, our Good Shepherd,
You are with us in every transition and change.
As we enter into this new era of parish renewal with excitement and even some anxiety, we recall your deep compassion, presence, and abounding love.

We thank you for the gifts, talents and skills with which you have blessed us.

We thank you for the experiences that have brought us to this moment.

We thank you for the work of others that gives breadth and depth to our own work. Be with us as we move forward, rejoicing with you and supporting one another.

We ask this in your Holy Name.

Amen.
