FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agajanian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we've always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!

Legion of Mary Corner

The Feast of the Assumption (August 15, holyday of obligation)

The feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is the greatest of all her feasts. Her divine maternity may be regarded as the immediate reason for her Assumption, but the formal reason for the preservation of her body from corruption and for her privileged Assumption into heaven may be sought in her immunity from all stain of original sin.

Let us rejoice with our celestial Mother, and ask her intercession "now and at the hour of our death."

We believe that the most holy Virgin, to resemble Jesus in everything, died of pure love of God; that she was not subject to the corruption of the grave but was raised up by the omnipotence of God; and she was taken up, body and soul, into heaven. We believe that in heaven she occupies a higher place than all other creatures, that she is enthroned as Queen at the right hand of her Son, that her heart resembles most closely the heart of Jesus. We believe in her maternal goodness.

The Legion of Mary invites you to attend our meetings at 5:30 pm on any Thursday at St. Rita's Hall.

CHURCH PARKING

FIRE LANES

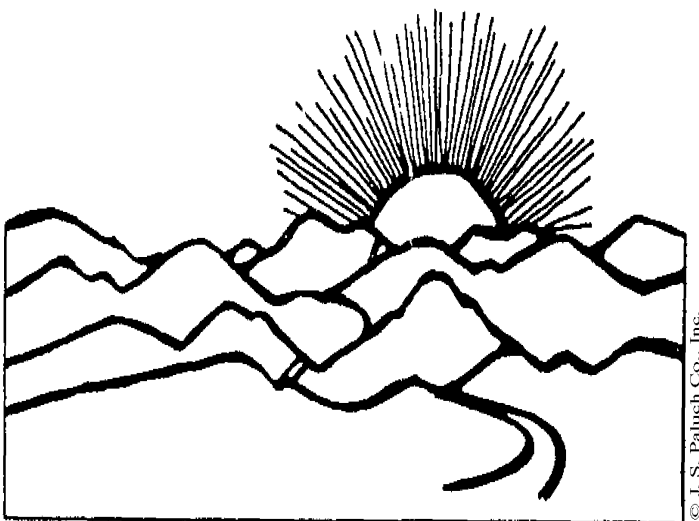

Last week, at the 10 am mass, we had a medical emergency in the church and the firetruck could not maneuver due to cars parked in the fire lane. We ask everyone to please respect the fire lanes, especially the area in front of the church. It could mean saving someone's life.
